

CPC Driver Declaration Information

Important Notice

You agree the information supplied by you in this Declaration is to the best of your knowledge, true and complete and no material fact has been misrepresented or withheld by you.

You acknowledge that failure to disclose all material information may result in a refusal by the Road Safety Authority to provide you with the a Certificate of Professional Competence under the return to Professional Driving Programme and/or in the event of you obtaining the Certificate of Professional Competence, a Certificate so issued will be null and void.

Material Information is that which the Road Safety Authority would regard as likely to influence its assessment of your application and acceptance of your entitlement to obtain a Certificate of Professional Competence.

You have a continuing obligation to disclose to the Authority any information that may affect this application.

You agree if you are in any doubt you will disclose the information to the Authority and the Authority will be the final determinant as to the relevance or otherwise of the information to your application.

Please note this Declaration, in conjunction with any other information supplied by you and/or on your behalf will form the basis of your application.

If any information has been supplied by a person other than you, you agree such person shall be your agent and you are bound by the information provided.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Road Safety Authority reserves the right to validate by independent means, with or without prior notice, the content of the Declaration in whole and/or in part.

To confirm acceptance of the conditions upon which this Declaration is made and to indicate the grounds of this Declaration of the basis of your application, please read the paragraph below and complete the relevant application/declaration form.

I have read and understand the preceding paragraphs and the basis upon which this Declaration is made. I confirm the content of the Declaration is true and accurate, that it contains full disclosure of all or any relevant material and I acknowledge that in the event there is any material non-disclosure by me, I am not entitled to obtain a Certificate of Professional Competence to return to Professional Driving.

Warning – If you make a self-declaration that is incorrect and you knowingly and/or inadvertently mislead the Road Safety Authority, the application will be void from the outset, therefore if you were to obtain a Certificate of Professional Competence it will be invalid and cannot be relied upon in seeking to return to Professional Driving.