

Áine Cornally

Áine Cornally has been a career banker in Bank of Ireland since 1986. She has worked predominantly in Treasury and Capital Markets division in customer facing roles and also acted as Head of Operations, Strategy and Governance in the set up of a new Division providing customer operations and IT for the BOI Group.

Her most recent role is as Head of Funding for Corporate Banking. She holds a BSc in Financial Services from UCD and an MSc in Business Administration from Trinity College as well as business qualifications from Henley College and London Business School.

