

Aaron MacHale

Aaron MacHale is Managing Director of a group of companies in the Plant Hire, Civil Engineering and Construction industry. He is currently involved in a Petrol Forecourt and Retail Development in North Dublin. Educated at Rathcoole Community School and Waterford Institute of Technology, Aaron worked abroad in Germany, Holland, and for a longer time, in Australia. Aaron's pastime is Motorsport and he won the Irish Group N Championship in 2002 and the Overall Irish Championship in 2007. He finished 11th overall in the 2009 World Rally Championship event that took place in Ireland. He is also involved in organising Motorsport events.

Aaron joined the Board of the RSA in 2006. This year, he has been involved in creating a partnership between the RSA and Motorsport Ireland with a view to bringing the road safety message to the Motorsport Community. This partnership also aims to encourage people to become involved in Motorsport where events are held in safe environments, as an alternative to speeding on public roads.

