

Biography - Michael Aherne

Mr Michael Aherne, Head of Transport Development Division, National Transport Authority

Catering for risk-averse cyclists and pedestrians

Since joining DTO in 1996, Michael has been a contributor to overall transport and traffic policy within the greater Dublin area. He is principal advisor on Traffic Management at the NTA, and has been involved in the development of the Quality Bus Corridor (QBC) programme, development of cycling, roadworks management, traffic signalling etc. He was Director of Velo-city Dublin 2005. He chairs some technical groups, including the Dublin group responsible for the new traffic plans for Dublin city centre, and the POLIS working group on Traffic Efficiency and Mobility.