How your eligibility to sit a driving test determines your place in the queue... To be eligible to sit a test you must have: Lisa Start ✓ held your first learner permit for at least 6 months completed all of Lisa applied for her test as soon as Waiting time in the queue your EDT she completed her EDT so she was added to the queue straight Receives Sits test & Applies for a test Lisa opts to away. In this case, Lisa's position invite & passes is determined by her application when EDT reschedule books test date. completed booking Start Alex Waiting time in the gueue 6-8 weeks Alex had completed his EDT Receives invite before he applied for a test, so his Completes Applies for Sits test & Sits test Reapplies Reinvited position in the queue is determined & books test EDT a test passes & fails for a test to book by his application date. Start Hanna Waiting time in the queue Applies for Receives Completes Sits test & Hanna hadn't completed her EDT a test invite & EDT when she applied, so she wasn't passes books test eligible to sit a test. She was added to the queue when she finished her last EDT session, so her position is determined by this date. Sample timeline only January February May June July March April September October November August December 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021 2021

2021